National Tour Continues Through Spring

Fairfax, VA (February 8, 2010) --- Edwin McCain will kick off the release of The Best of Edwin McCain with an appearance on the CBS News' The Early Show, Saturday edition on March 27th, performing his new single, "Walk With You." Produced by Don Was, the track is already gearing up to be as big a smash as his enduring mega hits "I'll Be" and "I Could Not Ask For More." All three songs are included in The Best of Edwin McCain along with "Some Kind of Wonderful" from his acclaimed 2008 covers album, Nobody's Fault But Mine (both released on Saguaro Road Records).

Although he recorded two of the biggest love songs in the history of pop music, McCain still tours like a troubadour, balancing his massive pop success with the down-to-earth life and the year-round tours of a working musician. The New York Times agrees, recently describing Edwin as the "great American romantic, and even when his work veers toward sentimentality, it still feels genuine."

Edwin will perform in the following cities this Spring:

February 5	Birmingham AL	WorkPlay Theatre
February 13	Greenville TN	Ella's Good Music Good Food
February 14	Nashville TN	3rd & Lindsley
February 21	Miami FL	Cayamo: A Journey Through
March 18	Isle Of Palms SC	The Windjammer
March 19	Columbia SC	The Clarion Hotel Sonefeld
April 1	Jackson, MS	Hal and Mals
April 2	Houston TX	House of Blues
April 3	Dallas TX	House of Blues
April 9	Chicago, IL	Cubby Bear
April 10	Cleveland, OH	House of Blues
June 26	Apple Valley, MN	Weesner Amphitheatre
